BIO

MOTHERFLUTTERS are a Portuguese power duo formed by two brothers André Cameira (flute/voice) and Filipe Cameira (guitar/voice). They studied/taught music together and played in different bands (Moullinex, Suite) and classical music groups for more than 20 years before deciding to go on a solo adventure. When the European Debt crisis hit their home country, Filipe went to London and André stayed in Portugal. Ironically, that's when everything began for them... In 2017 they started composing via Facetime/Skype and WhatsApp sending each other their own recording sessions and ideas and so Music kept them together. Filipe then moved to Qatar, where he currently lives for 4 years now, and not even the 7500km distance was able to separate the two brothers. From their first upcoming album, 5 singles were released hitting first place at the QBS TOP40 in Qatar and at ANTENA3 TOP3.30 in Portugal for several weeks.

Their music combines elements of disco, funk and pop music, as well as simple and appealing voice lines with striking melodies. The unique sound of the flute and the funky electric guitar will definitely make you dance... For 2023 they present themselves with a full band prepared to spread Joy, Love and lots of Dancing throughout the show.
